General Help and Information

Service Desk Guide

Many MFF departments use Jira Service Desks to provide attendee support. Find information here on account creation and how to use the service desks to help us help you.

Staffing and Volunteering

Volunteering

Looking for a way to contribute to the convention, with flexibility and low commitment? Become a gopher!

Volunteer applications open as the convention nears.

Staff Interest

Interested in joining staff, either with a convention department or corporate operations? Let us know, and we'll follow up with opportunities for you.
